(PROGRAM MANAGER II)
Human Resources Department

The recruitment will remain open until sufficient applications from qualified candidates are received.

THE JOB

The Benefits Manager develops and manages Clark County's benefits programs with an emphasis on insurance benefits (health, dental, life, LTD) and deferred compensation programs. Additional duties include managing FMLA and other programs such as new employee orientation, the Employee Assistance Program, and LEOFF Disability Program. Manages HRIS and ensures proper administration systems and procedures are in place. Provides counsel and advice to employees and managers regarding disability management and other related matters. Serves as a resource to the healthcare committee.

The Clark County HR department has a staff of 15 serving an employee population of approximately 1,700 in a dynamic environment. This position reports to the Human Resources Director, participates on the HR management team and manages a staff of 3 – 6. The department reports directly to the County Administrator and enjoys a high degree of autonomy and visibility.

QUALIFICATIONS

Requires a Bachelors degree from an accredited college or university with major coursework in human resources, business administration, public administration, or related field. Additional graduate-level coursework or degree is desirable. Minimum of four to six years of professional level experience working with employee benefit programs for a large organization and supervision of staff is required. All combinations of education, experience, and training that demonstrate the ability to perform the work will be considered.

Other key skills and attributes will include:

- Strong technical benefits knowledge combined with strong project management and benefits administration
- Experience designing, analyzing, implementing and managing employee benefit plans and providers
- Experience in a unionized and/or public sector environment is helpful
- Strong communication skills – oral, written, and presentation
- Strong problem solving and collaboration skills
- Experience spanning multiple Human Resources disciplines and SPHR, CEBS, or CBP certification are desirable

SALARY

The salary range is $4,990 – $7,053 per month. Starting salary range is approximately $5,505 – $6,020 per month depending upon qualifications. This position participates in Clark County's management pay plan and all salary increases are performance based. Clark County offers its managers generous benefits including management vacation leave starting at 22 days per year, fully-paid medical and dental insurance, long-term disability insurance and life insurance. Employees participate in the Washington State Public Employees' Retirement Plan.

SELECTION PROCESS

1. Application Review: (Pass/Fail) – All applicants must complete a Clark County application and submit it to the Human Resources department by 5:00 p.m. on the closing date. Incomplete applications will not pass the application review. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process.
2. Letter of Interest and Resume: (Pass/Fail) – In addition to the Clark County application, applicants must submit a letter of interest highlighting their qualifications for this position. Candidates deemed most qualified will be invited to participate in the remainder of the selection process. Resumes may also be included for review and consideration.
3. Oral Interview Process: - The interview process will be job related and may include, but not be limited to, the qualifications outlined in the job announcement.
4. Employment References: - May be conducted for the final candidates.
